ABC Accepts Ad From Focus On Family After Rejecting Gay Friendly Christian Church

by Michael in New York on 5/02/2005 03:02:00 PM

This is really outrageous. According to the NYT, ABC is running an ad from hate group Focus on the Family during the season finale Monday of the hit primetime show Supernanny. This after CBS and NBC refused to run an ad from the United Church of Christ because it dared to be welcoming of gays.

Focus on the Family is a hate group and has a history of lying and distorting facts when speaking to the media. Any org that wanted to focus on them and challenge their lies in major stories could have made this group untouchable for any respectable media outlet years ago. Ditto the Traditional Values Coalition et al. But they're considered respectable enough to run ads on major networks but a Christian church is not?

Thanks to ohthebill for alerting us to this story.
