

From: charles webb <addressunknown@hotmail.co.uk>
Subject: RE: Home School feature in NY Daily News
Date: January 10, 2008 5:33:19 AM EST
To: Michael Giltz <mgiltz@pipeline.com>

Dear Michael,

Many thanks for this. Very well-written and very sympathetic. Thank you for your sensitivity.

Larger issues bedevil me over whether artists should be pressed into service to sell their own work but this is the subject of my play, and after reading yours I find my militancy on this issue is blunted, though not for good I hope.

Charles

To: addressunknown@hotmail.co.uk; Joan.Higgins@stmartins.com
From: mgiltz@pipeline.com
Subject: Home School feature in NY Daily News
Date: Mon, 7 Jan 2008 12:51:16 -0500

Hi,

In case you missed it, here's a link to my feature on Charles Webb pegged to the release of "Home School." Thanks for setting it up and taking the time to talk with me.

Sincerely,

Michael Giltz

http://www.nydailynews.com/entertainment/arts/2008/01/06/2008-01-06_charles_webb_writes_graduate_sequel.html

Michael Giltz
mgiltz@pipeline.com
917-541-3771
freelance: NY Daily News, The Advocate, etc.
163 Amsterdam Ave.
#250
NY NY 10023

Sounds like? How many syllables? Guess and win prizes with Search Charades!